

| | |
|------------------------------------|----|
| PLAYER'S CODE OF CONDUCT | 2 |
| OFFICIAL'S CODE OF CONDUCT | 5 |
| COACH'S CODE OF CONDUCT | 7 |
| SPECTATOR'S CODE OF CONDUCT | 10 |
| PARENT'S CODE OF CONDUCT | 11 |
| COMMITTEE MEMBER'S CODE OF CONDUCT | 13 |

PLAYER'S CODE OF CONDUCT

This Code of Conduct has been created to ensure that player safety and wellbeing is maintained, and the integrity of North Coburg Rebels Baseball Club Baseball remains intact.

Players shall:

- Operate within the codes and policies set up by North Coburg Rebels Baseball Club Baseball and encourage all others to do so.
- Operate within the rules and spirit of the game and at the direction of the officials and your coach.
- Treat officials (e.g. umpires) and non-playing officials (e.g. coaches and scorers) with respect. Accept the decisions that are made by those officials, regardless of your interpretation of the rule or the decision.
- Treat your own team mates and players of competing teams with respect.
- If you disagree with a decision of an official, respectfully approach your coach and allow them the opportunity to request clarification of the rule or decision from the official.
- Notify your coach of any injury or illness before taking the diamond or commencing training.

- Refrain from the use of abusive or offensive language including sledging.
- Treat your own equipment and the club's equipment with respect.
- Treat your surrounds, the dugout and club facilities with respect.
- Be mindful of how your actions affect the safety, wellbeing and comfort of those around you, including other players, spectators and officials.
- Refrain from taking the diamond or the training ground when intoxicated or under the influence of alcohol, or prescription or non-prescription medication that may impede your ability to play.
- Always encourage other team mates by giving positive feedback in a fair and respectful manner.
- Arrive at training and at games on time and ready to train, warm-up or play.
- Help other players and coaches to set up and pack up the equipment
- Honour commitments that you have made to your team and coach (e.g. attend to your umpiring or canteen duties).
- Treat all players and officials with respect regardless of their gender, sexuality, age, ability, nationality, cultural background or religious beliefs.
- Do not take unfair advantage of another player.

- Wear your full uniform (e.g. correct hat, pants, socks, shorts and shirt) with pride and in keeping with the Regulations of North Coburg Rebels Baseball Club.
- Pay your fees on time.
- Make all players feel welcome, particularly new players.
- Enhance the skill level, safety and enjoyment of new players by offering assistance if and where required and with the input or consent of the coach.

OFFICIAL'S CODE OF CONDUCT

This Code of Conduct has been created to enhance quality of umpires and scorers, improve the player's understanding of the rules of the game and maintain the integrity of North Coburg Rebels Baseball Club Baseball.

Officials shall:

- Operate within the codes and policies set up by North Coburg Rebels Baseball Club Baseball and encourage all others to do so.
- Operate within the rules and the spirit of the game.
- Show respect to other officials and players.
- Explain the rules and your interpretation of those rules to players, coaches and other officials if required.
- Ensure you maintain your accreditation and keep apprised of any rule changes
- Umpire or score in line with the skill level of the players involved.
- Be consistent, objective and courteous when scoring or making decisions.
- Condemn unsportsmanlike conduct and promote respect to all players and officials.
- Arrive at the game on time and ready to commence your duties.
- Wear your club shirt and hat (if you are a scorer) or full safety apparel (if you are an umpire).

- Ensure the safety of players and other officials is maintained above all other issues.
- Treat your equipment and the club's equipment with respect.
- Treat your surrounds, the dugout and the club facilities with respect.
- Be mindful of how your actions affect the safety, wellbeing and comfort of those around you, including players, spectators and other officials.
- Refrain from attending to your duties when intoxicated or under the influence of alcohol, or any prescription or non-prescription medication that may impede your ability to attend to your duties.
- Treat all players and other officials with respect regardless of their gender, sexuality, age, ability, nationality, cultural background or religious beliefs.
- Enhance the skill level, safety and enjoyment of all players by offering assistance if and where required and within the bounds of your duties

COACH'S CODE OF CONDUCT

This Code of Conduct has been created to enhance the quality of coaches, improve the player's ability and understanding of the rules and tactics of the game whilst maintaining the integrity of North Coburg Rebels Baseball Club Baseball.

Coach's shall:

- Operate within the codes and policies set up by North Coburg Rebels Baseball Club Baseball and encourage all others to do so.
- Operate within the rules and the spirit of the game.
- Show respect to other coaches, officials and players.
- Ensure that any physical contact with another person is appropriate to the situation and is solely to enhance the player's skill level.
- Explain the rules and your interpretation of those rules to players and co-coaches.
- Ensure you maintain your accreditation and keep apprised of any rule changes.
- Condemn unsportsmanlike conduct and promote respect to all players and officials.
- Arrive at the game on time and ready to commence your duties.
- Wear your club shirt and hat.

- Ensure the safety of players, spectators and officials is maintained above all other issues.
- Treat your equipment and the club's equipment with respect.
- Treat your surrounds, the dugout and the club facilities with respect.
- Be mindful of how your actions affect the safety, wellbeing and comfort of those around you, including players, spectators and other officials.
- Refrain from attending to your duties when intoxicated or under the influence of alcohol, or any prescription or non-prescription medication that may impede your ability to attend to your duties.
- Enhance the skill level, safety and enjoyment of all players by offering assistance if and where required
- If you disagree with a decision of an official, respectfully approach the plate umpire and allow them the opportunity to provide clarification of the rule or decision.
- Ensure that you take a player's health, wellbeing and safety in account before permitting them to take the diamond.
- Refrain from the use of abusive or offensive language including sledging.
- Always encourage players by giving positive feedback in a fair and respectful manner.
- Arrive at training and at games on time and ready to commence the session or game

- Ensure the security of the club's equipment and report any defects in a timely manner
- Honour commitments that you have made to your team.
- Treat all players and officials with respect regardless of their gender, sexuality, age, ability, nationality, cultural background or religious beliefs.
- Do not take unfair advantage of the opposition.
- Make all players feel welcome, particularly new players

SPECTATOR'S CODE OF CONDUCT

This Code of Conduct has been created in an effort to enhance the enjoyment of the sport as a whole and ensuring that the integrity of North Coburg Rebels Baseball Club Baseball remains intact.

Spectators shall:

- Operate within the codes and policies set up by North Coburg Rebels Baseball Club Baseball and encourage all others to do so.
- Condemn unsportsmanlike conduct and promote respect to all players and officials.
- Display responsible behaviour in relation to alcohol and drugs.
- Be mindful of how your actions affect the safety, wellbeing and comfort of those around you, including players, other spectators and officials.
- Treat all players, coaches and officials with respect regardless of their gender, sexuality, age, ability, nationality, cultural background or religious beliefs.
- Refrain from the use of abusive or offensive language including sledging.
- Always encourage players by giving positive feedback in a fair and respectful manner.

PARENT'S CODE OF CONDUCT

This Code of Conduct has been created in an effort to enhance the enjoyment of the sport as a whole, enhance the enjoyment and safety of children involved in the sport and maintain the integrity of North Coburg Rebels Baseball Club Baseball.

Parents shall:

- Operate within the codes and policies set up by North Coburg Rebels Baseball Club Baseball and encourage all others to do so.
- Display sportsmanlike and appropriate behaviour and encourage others to do so.
- Condemn unsportsmanlike conduct and promote respect to all players, coaches and officials.
- Display responsible behaviour in relation to alcohol and drug.
- Be mindful of how your actions affect the safety, wellbeing and comfort of those around you, including players, spectators and other officials.
- Treat all players, other parents, spectators and officials with respect regardless of their gender, sexuality, age, ability, nationality, cultural background or religious beliefs.
- Refrain from the use of abusive or offensive language including sledging.

- Always encourage players by giving positive feedback in a fair and respectful manner.
- Ensure that the safety and wellbeing of all children (under the age of 18 years) is held above all other concerns
- Offer assistance to the coach as and when required (including packing up and setting up equipment)

COMMITTEE MEMBER'S CODE OF CONDUCT

This Code of Conduct has been created in an effort to ensure that all members of North Coburg Rebels Baseball Club Baseball are treated fairly, that the operations of the club are placed above personal gain and that the integrity of North Coburg Rebels Baseball Club Baseball remains intact.

Committee members shall:

- Operate within the codes and policies set up by North Coburg Rebels Baseball Club Baseball and encourage all others to do so.
- Be mindful of how your actions affect the wellbeing and comfort of those around you, including players, spectators, officials and other committee members.
- Maintain confidentiality where required.
- Act with honesty, integrity and objectivity and in the best interests of the club and the sport as a whole.
- Support coaches and officials to improve their skill set and competencies.
- Ensure that any information acquired, or any advantage gained from the committee position is not used improperly.
- Conduct club responsibilities with due care, diligence and competence.

- Refrain from attending to your committee duties whilst under the influence or intoxicated by alcohol, prescription and non-prescription drugs.
- Respect the opinions of all other committee members and allow other committee members to voice their opinions freely and without ridicule.
- Treat all club members, officials, parents and spectators with respect regardless of their gender, sexuality, age, ability, nationality, cultural background or religious beliefs.
- Honour and fulfil the commitment that you have made to the club.